

Feltham History Group October Meeting 2017

The October Meeting was opened by the Chairman with a warm welcome to those attending for the first time

Under Items of interest were notes on Conservation Areas Appraisal Consultation proposed by the Council under which inferences, although veiled were concerning. The Chairman guided members through the current legislation in England and Wales the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990 (Section 69 and 70), wherein are definitions on the quality of a conservation area as being: "the character or appearance of which it is desirable to preserve or enhance". Members agreed that further information should be sought and if need be applications made.

Under 'Forthcoming events' there was notification of the annual West London Post Card Fair which is being held Saturday 14th October Teddington Baptist Church 10-15 – 4pm

Members were made aware of a talk to be given at Feltham Library pertaining to the Battle of Paschendale by Neil Dobson at Feltham Library 9th November at 7pm

It was agreed that the group would mount a display at Feltham Library commemorating WW1, WW2 and various other conflicts – this will be from Saturday 4th November Monday 12th November

In AOB the Secretary suggested a Friends of Feltham Summer Event (July 2018) should be produced; members agreed that given the number of al-fresco events dwindling it was for the group to promote such

The Short talk for the evening was given through the medium of 'fade' by Andi Barnes on Bedfont 'now and then'

Next Meeting Tuesday 2nd November
